Dear Daddy: Thur. Nov. 20, 1941

Please go to the Postoffice and send a tracer after the package, as I haven't gotten it yet. They will try to trace it from there. I can't understand it, as I get all of your mail, but no package. It is warm here for the last 3 or 4 days, and I like a lot better. It looks like rain today. We have to work right on through Thanksgiving, just like any other day, and the boys are still fighting today. We will get our big dinner Sunday. So far, since I have been here with the Regimental Headquarters, the food has been terrible, and not enough of it. I eat in town a lot. So write soon.

Love, Harold
